

we need to have corporations owning fewer radio and tv stations.

with corporations owning mass quantities of broadcasting (radio & tv) the possibility of graft (payola) and one sided reporting abounds. it's a scary prospect. there is also the question of quality when it comes to programing. (music and news) please limit the amount of venues that one corporation can have. thanks